“You hear a lot of laughter,” says Dr. Suzy Press about Children’s Dentistry of Morristown. “We are passionate about what we do, and that shows in the care we give our patients. It comes from the heart.”

“Dr. Suzy,” “Dr. Lisa,” Dr. Devi, and their dedicated all-female staff provide extraordinary dental care for children. They treat infants through young adults, including those with special needs, in a home-like, nurturing environment. Drs. Penton and Press are alumni of Columbia University; Dr. Devi is an NYU graduate. All three went on to specialize in pediatric dentistry.

“Our mission is to help children maintain good oral health for a lifetime,” Dr. Lisa says. They take time to get to know patients and their parents and to individualize their dental care. “We’re all friends here, patients included. It feels like family,” says Dr. Devi. “We build relationships to last a lifetime.”
